AMERICAN FRIENDS OF ISAAC ACCORDS · YEAR ONE IMPACT REPORT

From Vision to Movement

In its first year, AFOIA turned the Isaac Accords from a framework into signed legislative commitments, millions of views, and real partnerships between Israel and Latin America.

THE KEY PROOF POINTS: COMMITMENTS IN WRITING, AND IN VOTES

Declaration of Shared Principles

In Buenos Aires (June 2026), headlined by President Milei, legislators from 12 countries signed Isaac Accords Declaration and committed to developing legislative roadmaps in their home bodies to deepen ties with Israel.

Brazil Leads the Hemisphere

AFOIA secured the signatures of one-third of Brazil's legislature, making Brazil's parliamentary front for Israel the first legislative body in the Western Hemisphere to sign. Brazil is the world's tenth-largest economy.

A Measurable Shift at the UN

84.6%
Argentina votes with Israel, 2025 (0% in 2023)

100%
Paraguay, every tracked 2025 resolution

Colombia, Honduras and Peru, which voted against Israel on every resolution in 2023–25, all abstained on the first 2026 vote.

BUILDING REAL PARTNERSHIPS

- Cyber and AI for Colombia and Ecuador: bringing Israeli capabilities to citizen security and economic needs.
- Capital: Israel–IDB Isaac Accords Fund signed June 2026 for infrastructure, innovation and sustainable growth.
- Health: Rambam mass-casualty training for 200 medical professionals in Costa Rica.
- Diplomacy: direct, ongoing relationships with Latin American UN ambassadors, and with heads of state and foreign ministers.
- Voices: journalists, influencers and student leaders in six countries trained.

MILESTONES AND MOMENTUM

- April 2026: Netanyahu and Milei formally signed the Isaac Accords in Jerusalem
- Bolivia restored full relations with Israel; Colombia announced full restoration and an embassy move to Jerusalem
- Ecuador opened an innovation office in Jerusalem; Costa Rica announced its own, plus a free trade agreement and IHRA adoption
- Argentina, Paraguay, Ecuador and Costa Rica have designated Hamas and Hezbollah as terrorist orgs

The proof of concept is here.
Building lasting ties between Israel and Latin America.
